shortly after releasing their first album with us on valeot records (nr. 004), slon wrote and recorded the songs to be found on this 7" EP. limited to 200 pieces, 100 on white and 100 on black vinyl. hand-printed artwork.

"nachtnebel" and his revenge are two well-crafted songs whirling up a huge number of influences from a variety of genres of today's instrumental rock music - an exciting and ever-shifting mixture of math-rock, post-rock, hardcore, progressive, experimental and - most important for us here at valeot - remarkably beautiful.

in contrast to their above-mentioned album, this record was produced by the band completely on their own, recorded (hi-fi) in their rehearsal space, mixed by themselves and finally excellently mastered - as many other valeot releases before - by martin siewert. this new style of production makes the songs sound more lively and rougher than those on the album. but there is also notable progression in the songwriting - listen and find out!

2008/2009 saw slon touring through germany, czech, austria, serbia and croatia. slon shared stages with bands like port-royal, gregor samsa, caspian, vortex rex and many more.
